Notice

Dated: 29 11 2024

With reference to GO: 730-EDN(CS)10M-95/14 dated November 25, 2024, the college administration has scheduled the second phase of admission in standalone mode and announced the dates in the prior notification on college admission portal. However, this is to notify everyone involved that the further process of second phase of the standalone admission process has been withdrawn because no candidates have applied for any of the offered courses. We sincerely apologize if this has caused you any inconvenience. If you want any additional information or clarification, please get in touch with the College office. I appreciate your understanding.
